Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good," and Doctor Pierce's medicine well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merit. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popularity, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for women's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve, it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booster" for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much undusted but never squashed.

LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES.

As a result of the recent convention of the League of Virginia Municipalities at Staunton representatives of the chambers of commerce of Norfolk, Lynchburg, Richmond, Petersburg, Newport News, and Danville met in that city yesterday by invitation of the local chamber to consider improvements in municipal administration. Walter E. Addison, of Lynchburg, was made chairman and E. B. Jacobs secretary.

Addresses were delivered by Mayor Cutchin, J. H. Wilkinson, president of the Roanoke board of aldermen; John W. Craddock, of Lynchburg, and others.

The following resolutions were adopted: First. That committees shall endeavor to secure such amendments to the constitution of Virginia as may seem wise to them, authorizing each city to adopt such form of municipal government as may be chosen by it without regard for forms of municipal government in other cities.

Second. That said committees shall be authorized to formulate plans for securing said amendments without further instructions from the commercial bodies appointing such committees, and that the members of this conference will report to their respective bodies the proceedings of this conference and will recommend the appointment of committees to attend a conference at Richmond on January 6 and 7.

The plan known as the "Staunton Idea" proposes to amend the constitution as to provide for administrations to give definite and uniform purpose to the movement, leaving it optional as to the character of government to be adopted by each municipality.

EPIGRAMS ON LOVE.

Matrimonial mishaps and how to avoid them was the text of an address delivered Tuesday night before the Kilo Association, a woman's club, of Chicago, by Rev. D. D. Vaughan.

About 200 young women listened to the discourse and went to their homes with some of the following epigrams to ponder over:

Marriage is the normal state, but it is no longer a necessary state.

Women often marry for home, for money, or because they wish to show some other woman that they can marry that particular man.

Learn to understand your husband—men are transparent.

Pretty women are not in demand; neat girls are.

To hold the love of your husbands keep fooling them. Make them believe you are the angel they supposed you before the wedding ceremony.

Women should love their husbands more than their children or parents; otherwise they will not be ideally happy.

RIZZO TO DIE.

Theodore Rizzo, murderer of the two children, Theresa Procopio and Freddy Infusino, whom he lured from their homes in Ulida N. Y., September 12 last, and shot in a ravine, was found guilty yesterday and was immediately sentenced to death during the week beginning November 21. An hour and a half later Rizzo was on route to Auburn prison, where last night he was placed in the condemned row. Six officers accompanied the prisoner to Auburn as a precautionary measure against violence to Rizzo. The prisoner's bravo deserted him before Justice Rogers gave the case to the jury, and when he stood up to hear his doom Rizzo was in a state of collapse. After sentence had been pronounced one of the guards asked Rizzo why he had murdered the children. "I don't know; I was drunk," he replied.

JOKE ON BRIDEGROOM.

Clothed in the suit and cap of a clown, with his face painted red and green, and then he proceeded to ride on the back of a mule while the bride unwillingly followed in a dilapidated vehicle, Frank A. Reed, of Elmira, N. Y., decided that his friends were carrying a joke too far. The bridegroom was a member of a bachelor club in Chester, Pa., where he formerly lived, and by his carriage had violated one of the rules of the club. After he had been held in Philadelphia while his wife was sent speeding to her home in Brooklyn on an express train in charge of one of the club members, Reed appealed to the police. Reed threatened, when he has been to Brooklyn and recovered his bride, to return to Philadelphia and cause several arrests.

WEDDING STOPPED.

Just as the Rev. Harold Cooper, of the First Congregational Church, of Sedalia, Mo., was about to utter the words that would have made Miss Lorene Mahoney the wife of H. O. Barry Monday night, the young woman's mother rushed into the room and forbade the ceremony. The bride-to-be became almost hysterical at the interruption, and insisted that the ceremony proceed. Finally, the mother's pleadings won her over, and she left her intended husband and went to her home. Miss Mahoney is a Catholic and Barry a Protestant. It was on this account that the mother of the young woman interfered, insisting that she be married, if at all, by a Catholic priest.

Fifty years' experience of an O'd Nurse.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their long-suffering children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind colic. By giving health to the child, it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle, 50c and $1.00.
